Department of Justice

November 27, 1967

Mr. Lawrence R. Houston
General Counsel
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.

Dear Larry: 25X1A

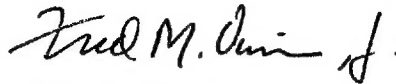

Messrs. [redacted] were extremely helpful and generous to us during our recent conference. The information problems which they had confronted were analogous to the ones we are facing. Their detailed and clear analysis and advice has helped us a good deal along the way to solving some of our most acute information needs.

25X1A

I appreciate the opportunity afforded to us by them and you. Mr. [redacted] called on November 21 to offer further assistance to us if we wish it after we decide on the kind of system with which to experiment. The interest and enthusiasm of your people is marvelous.

Thanks for your good offices in setting up this conference for us.

Sincerely,

FRED M. VINSON, Jr.
Assistant Attorney General
